

 OFFICE OF THE
COUNTY COUNSEL

ROBERT KALUNIAN

2009 – 2010

Robert Kalunian began his service as Acting County Counsel in March 2009.

Mr. Kalunian attended undergraduate school at California State University, Los Angeles and went to law school at Southwestern University School of Law. He passed the California State bar exam in 1973 then joined the Los Angeles County Public Defender's Office. Mr. Kalunian rose through the ranks of that office to Chief Deputy Public Defender. He was selected by the Board of Supervisors from his role as Chief Deputy Public Defender to temporarily fill the County Counsel position while the Board of Supervisors conducted a nationwide search.

Mr. Kalunian was never appointed County Counsel and, after almost a year, returned to his position at the Public Defender's Office in early 2010.

Source: Metropolitan News-Enterprise